

PLACES OF WORSHIP

Increasingly places of worship are ensuring that their premises provide additional income streams. This comes in many forms such as kitchens hired out for catering for private functions to cooking clubs, coffee shops or cafes to name just a few. As a result these facilities get extremely heavily used and it is essential that robust and durable cabinets are installed. Traditional wooden domestic kitchen cabinets simply cannot cope with this rigorous usage. Steelplan's metal carcass and doors have proved the answer.

The steel painted kitchens retain the required aesthetics and yet provide extremely low maintenance and decades of use. More importantly, installing a Steelplan Kitchen saves you money over its long life cycle.
